Allowable Subject Matter

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Claims 1-17 are allowable over the prior art of record because none of the prior art whether taken singularly or in combination, especially when these limitations are considered within the specific combination claimed, teach: a semiconductor integrated circuit device comprising: a timing generator circuit, among others as claimed in independent claims 1, 7, 13, which receives a clock signal and generates operational timing signals to be conveyed to address selector circuit, write circuit and read circuit.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

2. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

- Raszka et al. (6,597,629) disclose a built-in precision shutdown apparatus for effectuating self-referenced access timing scheme.
